DDGIP 2027
DARWIN DYNAMICS GLOBAL IMMERSION PROGRAM

DARWIN DYNAMICS · PUNE

A policy programme for students who want to know how global decisions are made.

Online preparation in India, then an immersion in Switzerland during Davos week. Every fellow writes a short policy brief with mentor feedback.

16–22	10	4 sessions	17–23 Jan
Class 11–12 and undergraduates	Seats, first cohort	Online preparation, 15 hours	2027, Davos week (proposed)

THE ROUTE

1. Prepare in India
   Online modules: the global economy, India's trade story, multilateral forums, policy writing. Parent briefing.
2. Orient in Switzerland
   Arrival, group orientation, planned visits to Swiss institutions or universities.
3. Policy in practice
   Seminars, public events, India-focused conversations, mentor sessions, daily brief-writing.
4. Synthesise and share
   Final workshop, student presentations, reflection. Selected work joins a fellows' showcase.

FIVE THEMES

- Trade & economic security
- AI & technology governance
- Energy transition
- Jobs & skills
- India in global value chains

HOW SELECTION WORKS

1. Registration form online (10 seats; registering is not a place)
2. Full application: essay, policy prompts, teacher recommendation
3. Panel interview and a short policy case

Assessed on analytical thinking, public purpose, initiative, communication and readiness. Nominated students take the same assessment.

STUDENT CARE COMES FIRST

Guardian consent, adult chaperones, a safeguarding lead, travel and medical planning and regular updates to families. Supervision, insurance and cancellation details are shared before enrolment.
